

THOMAS FOODS INTERNATIONAL – LOBETHAL

COMMUNITY AND STAKEHOLDER ENGAGEMENT STRATEGY

DATE	Last updated: 31 May 2024
TARGET STAKEHOLDER GROUPS	Local community
ENGAGEMENT MANAGEMENT STRATEGY	Actively inform
OBJECTIVE	Ensure government local community and immediate neighbours are well informed of environmental issues that may impact their lives.
			STAKEHOLDER GROUP INFORMED
STRATEGY	DESCRIPTION	TIMELINE / INTERVAL	LOCAL RESIDENTS	Government
Direct mail	Annual letterbox drop reminding website is primary source of information for the local community for matters that may be of interest or impact to the local community regarding the Lobethal site.	Annual by 30 June	✓
Webpage development	Develop dedicated Lobethal page within the TFI website	June 2024	✓	✓
Be open to feedback	Create, promote and actively monitor an email address for local residents and community stakeholders to directly contact TFI regarding matters of concern.	Completed. Ongoing.	✓	✓
Webpage maintenance	Actively update dedicated Lobethal page within TFI website with information for the local community for matters that may be of interest or impact to the local community regarding the Lobethal site.	As required	✓	✓
Government engagement	Actively inform and engage relevant local, state and federal authorities of matters of interest to the relevant departments and stakeholders within each level of government	As required		✓
Dialogue	Respond to relevant inbound questions and enquiries within 10 business days of receipt, where reasonably possible.	As required	✓	